Inaugural Violence HW 1/19/73

Bearing on my suggestion that the situation is ideal for the creation of violence and its values to Nixon and the Watergators, in his appearance on CBS TV a.m. news 1/18, Jeb Magruder was real Orwellian on this. He forecast it, charged that the protesting Members would be responsible, called upon some he named to see to it that there would be none, for all the world as thought it was planned and certain, and even named groups he said planned it. This is more than a self-fulfilling prophecy. It is very much as though he were advertising for it, including among the many irresponsibles in right-wing youth groups. To say nothing of new recruits, FBI and other finks, and the remnant of the operation of which the Watergate was part.
